Suzanne Yoon Named One of Mergers & Acquisitions' 2023 Most Influential Women in Mid-Market M&A

Yoon recognized on distinguished list honoring dealmakers and trailblazers for fourth straight year

Kinzie Capital Partners ("Kinzie") Founder and Managing Partner Suzanne Yoon has been named one of Mergers & Acquisitions' Most Influential Women in Mid-Market M&A for the fourth consecutive year. Yoon was recognized as a member of this distinguished list due to her significant influence inside Kinzie, its portfolio companies, and the wider middle-market, along with her clear commitment to advancing women in the industry.

"I am honored to be included amongst these trailblazing women who are making tremendous impacts not only on the status of women in finance, but the industry as a whole. Throughout my career I have worked to elevate the role of women and I am very grateful to Mergers & Acquisitions for their recognition of my contributions and the progress women are making across M&A."

- Suzanne Yoon, Founder & Managing Partner of Kinzie Capital Partners

Yoon was recognized for her dedication to raising the profile of women and serving as a visible example of success in the financial services industry. In addition to founding her own firm and managing investments, Yoon has an extensive history of philanthropy and civic engagement across various sectors, including her involvement with Private Equity Women Investor Network (PEWIN), Women's Association of Venture and Equity (WAVE), serving as a board member of the Chicago Public Library Foundation, the University of Iowa Center for Advancement, HFS Chicago Scholars, the Forums Committee of the Economic Club of Chicago, and as Chair of the Board of Trustees of The National Philanthropic Trust (NPT), the largest independent Donor Advised Fund manager in the world with over $14BL under management
